

Saturday, August 16, 1879.

Justice Strong, of the United States Supreme Court, is combining business with pleasure and fulfilling his judicial functions all along the coast of Rhode Island. An application for a writ of habeas corpus was made before him a few days ago at Rhode Island, an ocean summer resort, and the justice finished the hearing and granted the writ while on board the steamer going to Newport.

A Deserted Mining Camp.

J. M. Robinson writing from Meadow Lake, gives interesting facts regarding the once famous mining camp. He states that the camp is all gone to the dogs and the mines about the place, with their machinery and hoisting works, are gradually mouldering into decay, and there is nothing but ruin everywhere. The town is now occupied by ten men, two women, two cats, a dog (dying) and a mule, who occasionally amuses himself kicking down a row of buildings. He kicks down one building at the end and the rest falls as a matter of course. Hundreds of houses have been crushed flat by the snow. One man claims fourteen buildings and is trying to occupy them all. Another man has located forty six ledges and is waiting for some capitalist to come along and buy him out. Occasionally a ground hog wanders into the streets or a bear comes in to inspect the town, which relieves the monotony considerably, and such visitors are always welcome. To visit such a spot reminds one of Hood's weird poem, "The Haunted House."

SELECT SCHOOLS.

ON OR ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, Miss Annie G. Wood, now of Trinidad, will open a Select School in the room now in process of erection on the premises of the Presbyterian mission. She will teach five hours a day and five days in a week. Every pains will be taken to make it an excellent school and attractive to the pupils. The room will be well finished, neat and commodious, well lighted and ventilated, and in the winter well warmed. The public are invited to examine the room when it shall be completed. The terms will be $3.00 per month, payable monthly. No deduction will be made for absence, except in case of sickness, unless the pupil is absent one week, and when the pupil shall have been absent one week, (there having been no illness to prevent attendance), the seat will be considered vacant and given to the next applicant. Pupils will be registered in the order of application. Application should be made to the undersigned until Miss Wood arrives.

I believe Miss Wood to be well qualified to make this contemplated school such an one as the citizens of Las Vegas would desire. Her testimonials are of a very high and satisfactory character. JOHN A. ANNIN.
